Excellency,

I wish to convey my most sincere appreciation for your participation and valuable contribution to the tenth World Investment Forum. The Forum, which was the largest to date, was a great success, and brought together government leaders, public officials, private sector executives, thought leaders and attracted a number in the region of six thousand participants to over sixty events.

I very much welcomed your speech during the headline event of the Forum that greatly enriched the debate, and I thank you for your thorough engagement throughout, which was highly valued by delegates. Your contribution has helped to make the World Investment Forum a key major event for the investment-development community, devising strategies and solutions for global investment and development challenges and facilitating multi-stakeholder collective action to stimulate investment in sustainable development.

I also have the pleasure of informing you that photographs and information on the outcomes of the Forum are now available on our website at <http://unctad-worldinvestmentforum.org>. The 2018 Forum Report, which is currently being prepared, will be posted to the website in due course. My team and I remain at your disposal should you require any further information about the forum or UNCTAD's work in the area of investment and enterprise development.

Allow me also to thank you for the opportunity to engage with you in a frank and open discussion during our bilateral meeting. May I reassure you that UNCTAD will follow up as needed and I look forward to future opportunities to discuss important issues relating to investment, enterprise and sustainable development.

I very much hope that you will be able to collaborate again with UNCTAD in the future and it will be my pleasure to keep you informed about preparations for the World Investment Forum 2020.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
